

Cape Town South Africa

U.W.C in Cape Town

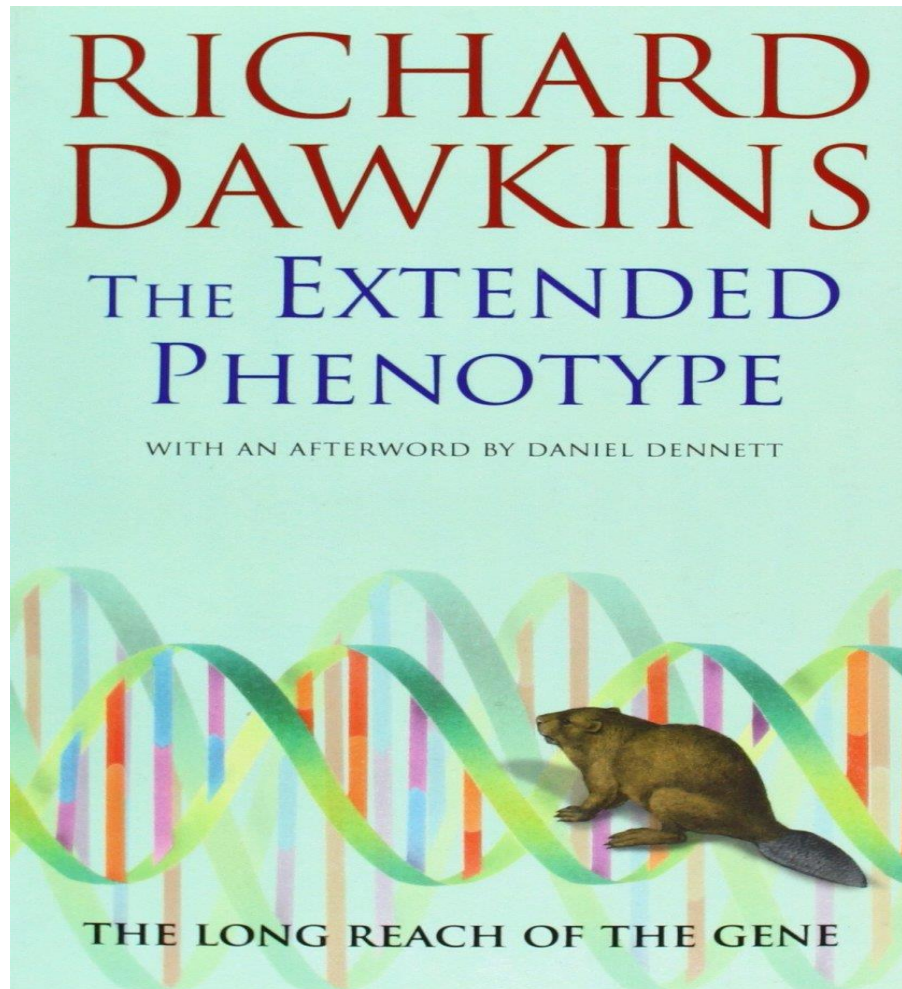

I studied English Literature.

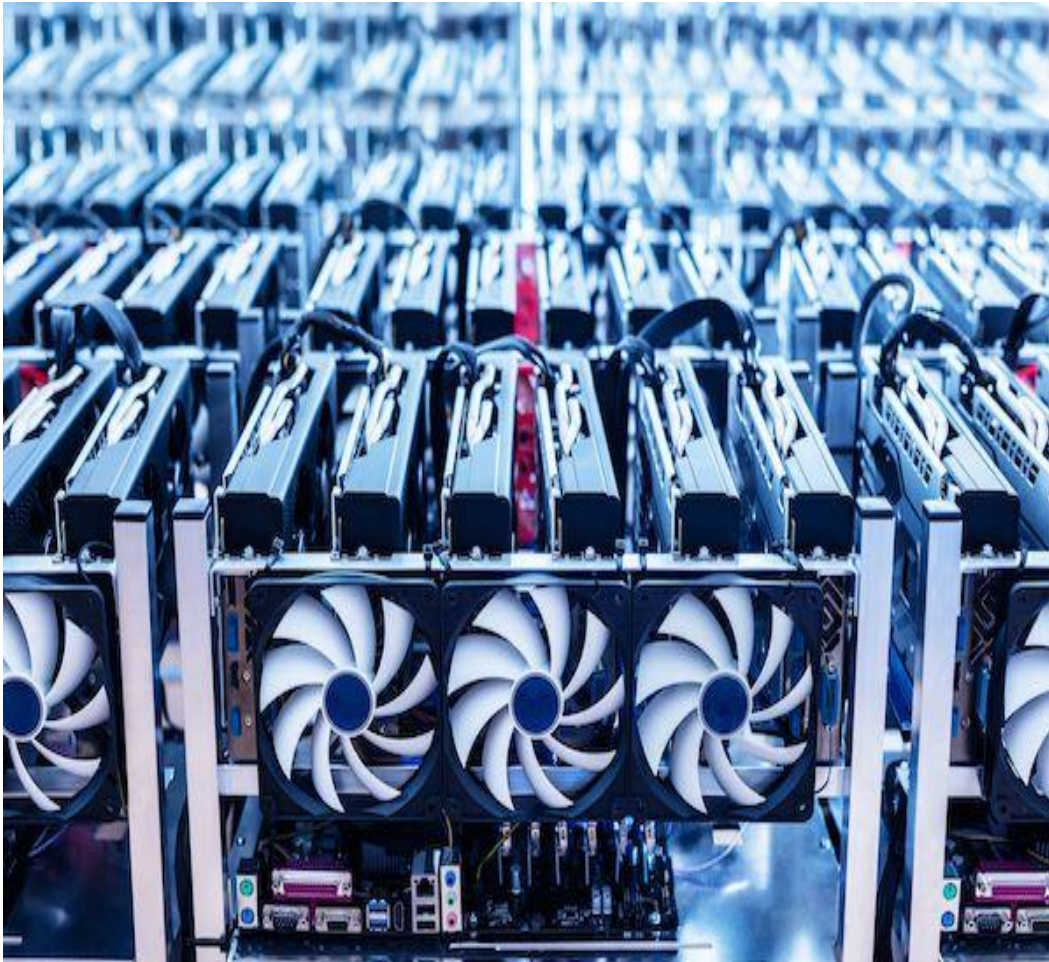

Linguistics

Since university I've gravitated toward science much more- probably because I love nature.

I also mine, buy, and study Bitcoin.

Lesson themes that relate to students' immediate environment.

Convenience

Why is it convenient ?

I ask many questions during lessons.

Example: It is open 24 hours a day.

Taiwan's nature described in English.

Eraser

Practical application of vocabulary.

- Use _____ to _____ this word: “stationary.”

Now use a _____ to _____ a notebook here >

- Now, use a _____ to highlight the word notebook up there ^ and back there <.
- Next, _____ this paper into four pieces with a scissor then staple them together with a _____.
- Then, each of you should use a blue _____ and sign your name this paper.

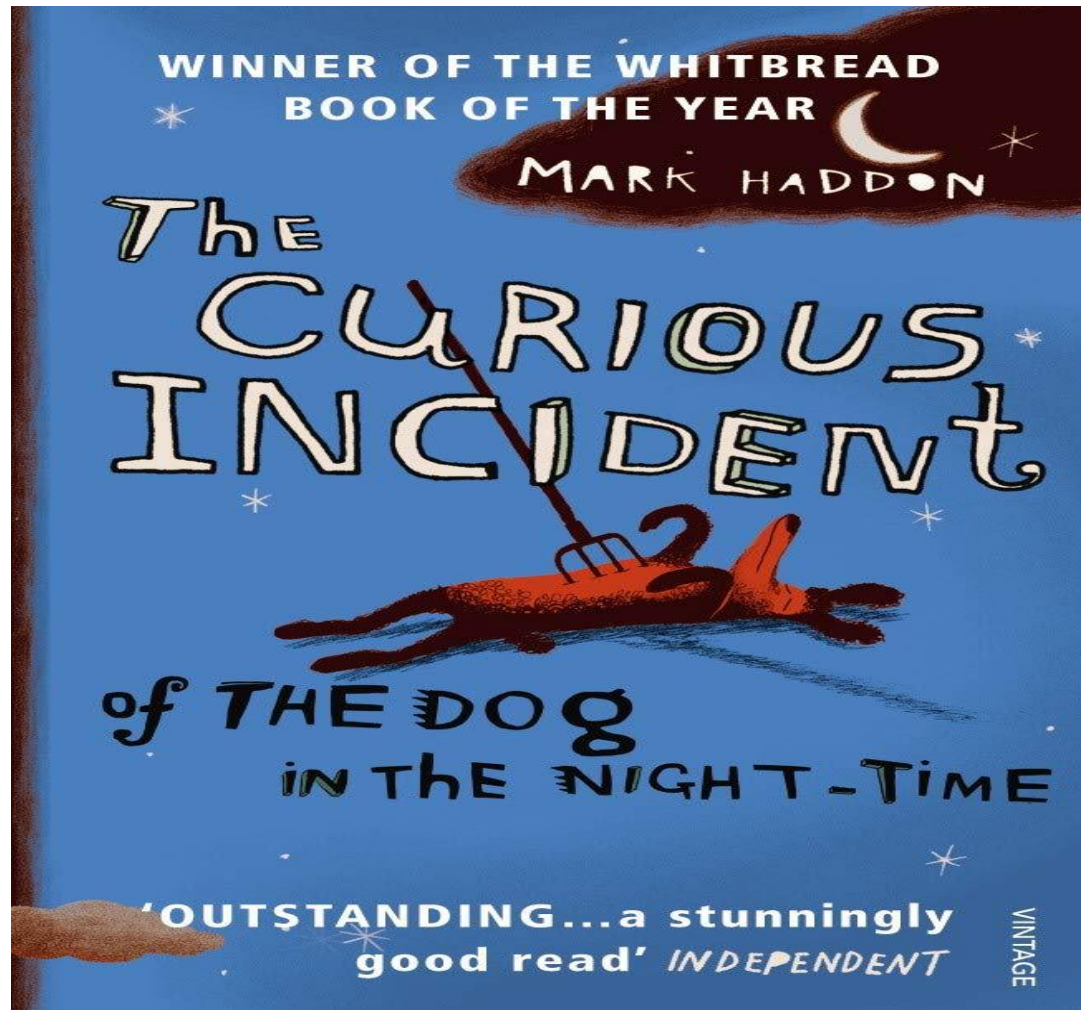

Difference between Taiwanese women and other women around the world.

Patriarchy, religion, culture

Simplifying extracts to teach students basic comprehension reading skills.

Freedom to express; learning to express, and using writing as a scaffold before oral expression.

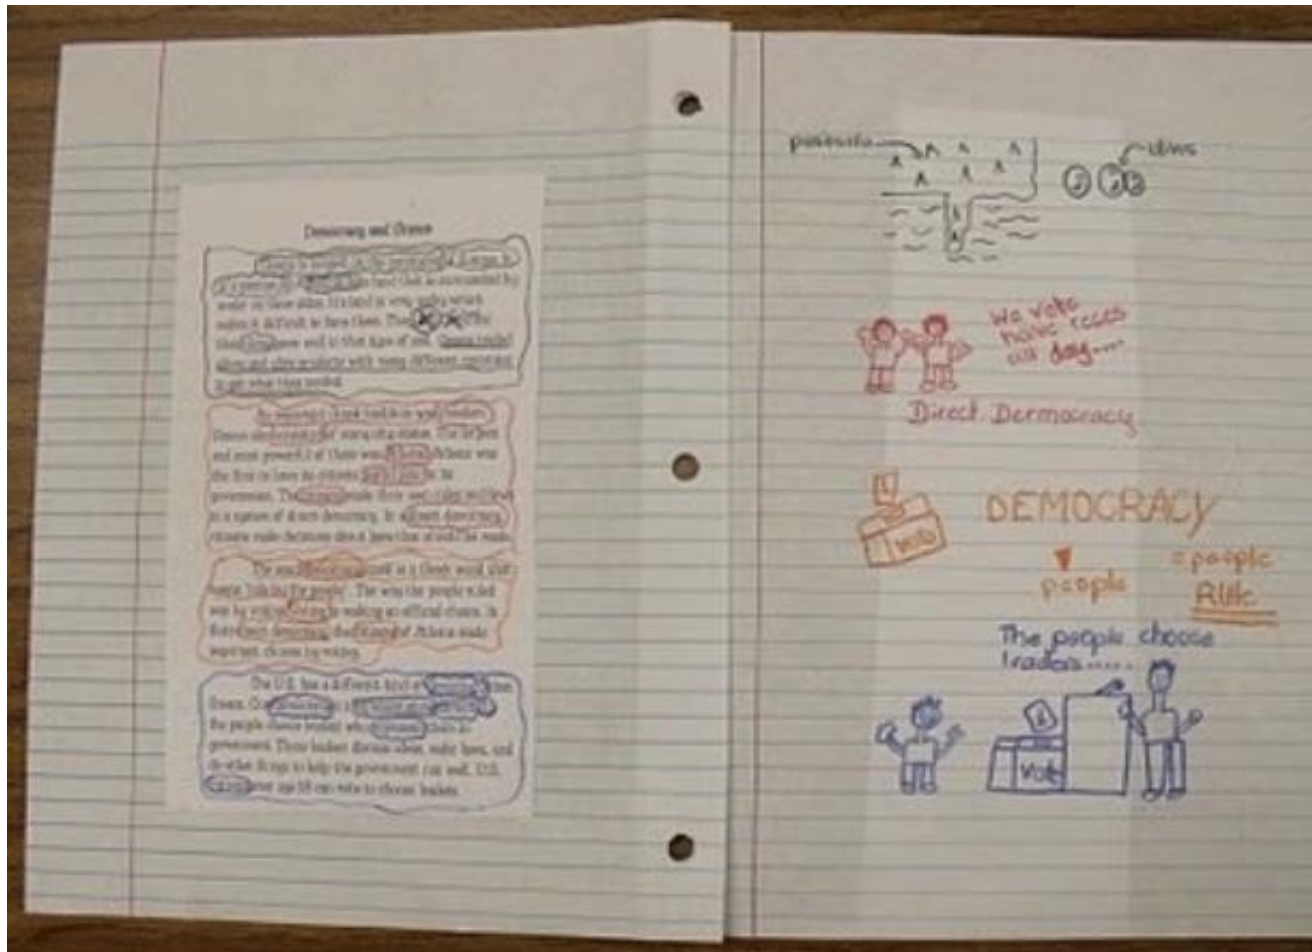

I am...

I am _____
I believe _____
I want _____
I am _____

I feel _____
I wonder _____
I worry _____
I am _____

I understand _____
I try _____
I hope _____
I am _____

Use of notebooks and stamp rewards to encourage them.

Checked!

★★★★★ Good!

★★★★★ Much Better

★★★★★ Artistic words

Please check

Perfect!

★★★★★ Superb

A+ Excellent

Good job

Keep going

Parents please sign here.
签字: _____

Mind your handwriting

TERRIFIC

WELL DONE!

Please Re-do

TELL ME WHY

Really good!

Progressed
Keep it!

PPT games to engage students.

In summary

- Focus on producing language in oral form.
- Freedom to express themselves and be creative.
- Complicated ideas made simple and accessible.
- Fun through and games and rewards for participation.
- Encouragement to try to speak.